

Vojin Vlahovic holds master's degree in economics, Faculty for International Economy, Finance and Business, University Donja Gorica, Podgorica from 2011. He completed postgraduate studies "Entrepreneurship Economics", School of Economics, University of Montenegro, course: "Financial Management"

Graduated at the School of Economics, University of Montenegro, Podgorica.

Career:

From 2017 to 2021 he was Chairman of the Board – Agency for Civil Air Traffic of Montenegro, 2015 to 2016 chairman of the Board of Airports of Montenegro.

He served as economic adviser to the Prime Minister of Montenegro and National coordinator for regional projects from 2015 to 2017.

In the period 2010 – 2015 he was ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary of Montenegro to Italy based in Rome, and non-resident ambassador to Malta and San Marino.

From 2003 – 2010 Vojin Vlahovic served as economic adviser to the Prime Minister of Montenegro and CEO of the Tourism Board of Montenegro from 2003 – 2006.

He was senior adviser in financial department of Pension and Disability Insurance Fund of Montenegro from 1995 to 1999.

Professional development:

1996 - Diploma and a broker's title awarded by the Federal Securities and Financial Market Commission, 1996

1996 - Specialist course in accounting and auditing organized by "Coopers & Lybrand "

2000 - Freedom House Fellowship: a ten-week training in the US, working in the investment and portfolio management sectors in several state institutions (including Arizona State Retirement System, Phoenix and Treasury Department of South Carolina, Columbia)

2001 - Specialist Course "Financial Management for Excellence - Profit and Loss Account Analysis", Bocconi University, Milan

Languages:

English: fluent

Italian: fluent